

ANNUAL CONFERENCE & The Audrey Jones Memorial AWARD(S) for Research by Women 2021

AUDREY JONES 1929 - 2014

Audrey was an inspiring woman with boundless energy. She was one of the founder members of the Wales Assembly of Women in 1984 and a past Chair and Secretary until 2014. On retiring from her Deputy Headteacher post at St Cyres Comprehensive School in Penarth, Audrey worked tirelessly for the cause of women's rights, safety and equality in pay and opportunities. She campaigned both nationally and internationally, being responsible for the representation of Wales on the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations. (See WAW website for tributes)

Wales Assembly of Women organise an annual conference normally in the Spring of each year. Though the pandemic situation postponed the 2020 conference to Autumn and a Zoom event! Typically the topics for the conference address key themes of equality and inclusion, identifying discrimination, tackling disadvantage, etc. Previous conference titles have included:

2011: Do Women in Wales Matter? Does Government care?

2013: Visible Women: Empowering girls and women in Wales.

2015: Women's Rights matter: Past, Present and Future

2016: The Women of Wales Care about Europe

2017: BREXIT really is a Women's Issue

2018: The Great Leap Forward: Embracing the Istanbul Convention in Wales to end violence against women and girls !

2019: Women's rights are human rights: Enhancing Women's rights in Wales.

2020 Women Breaking Barriers.

It was always the wish of Audrey Jones to involve more young women in WAW- sixth formers, undergraduates and postgraduates and she was always keen to hear about the latest research evidence. To this end WAW wished to honour the memory of Audrey by setting up a specific annual opportunity for this at the Annual WAW conference. The underpinning concept is to help young women, and mature women students of course, to disseminate their research findings and to have a platform for sharing important ideas which may shape and inform lobbying and campaigning decisions. Audrey was aware that far too many research findings remain in dissertations and theses where only a privileged few had access to them!

Thus WAW, courtesy of financial arrangements and the generosity of Audrey's son Robert Jones introduced for the first time in 2016, The AUDREY JONES MEMORIAL AWARDS. Following the success of the first four competition cycles, the Award will continue for 2021

The following pages outline details of the eligibility criteria for 2021 Awards; that is, who is eligible to apply, the milestones for submissions and announcements of results and the conference date. The final 3 pages comprise the application form [with expanding sections].

Please share and circulate to women post graduates who may be undertaking dissertations at Masters level, Doctoral level and to any involved in post doctoral research on women and girls.

FAQs/ Information

WHAT AWARD INFORMATION IS AVAILABLE FOR APPLICANTS?

Money has been earmarked and safely placed for the creation of a set of annual Awards for academic scholarship which seeks to generate important empirical material about girls' and women's experiences. Research evidence does help shape policy direction and provide a focus for campaigning and lobbying. Ideally we the Wales Assembly of Women are interested to hear about research which has valuable recommendations which may eventually inform and underpin future policy and actions.

There are up to THREE annual AUDREY JONES MEMORIAL AWARDS of £150 for research into the broad areas of any of the following :

1. Education and Training	7. Violence against women & girls
2. Work & Employment	8. Women & Political matters
3. Policy, Entitlements, Citizenship	9. Human Rights
4. Health	10. Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination Against Women [CEDAW]
5. The older woman	11. Women & diversity
6. Representation and/or leadership	12. Media and the arts

NOTE: If you are unsure whether your particular research focus “fits “ these broad areas, we advise you to visit the WAW website or Face book page and look at the aims and objectives of our organisation. Alternatively, you may email salisburyj@cardiff.ac.uk with the title of your dissertation/project/thesis and an abstract. A response from WAW Award sub committee will clarify this and whether to proceed with a formal application.

ALL applicants will be allocated a funded place at the annual conference which (unless it is a Zoom event) includes lunch and refreshments. WAW is particularly keen to involve more young women in their various activities and networks. To this end, all applicants will be given honorary membership to WAW for one year.
